Data#3 eliminates redundant data entry and streamlines the recruiting process into one application

When a company has vacant positions to fill, submitting them on a job board is a manual process. With multiple online recruiting channels to choose from, the process can rapidly become redundant.

Data#3 chose Target Recruit job board integration to eliminate this problem. Job board integration is the solution that has brought about innovative and time saving advances in online recruiting.

Challenges

- Data Entry Redundancy
- Maintaining Applicants in Multiple Locations
- Time Consuming
- Data entry errors. Changes not in sync.

Solution

- Job Board Integration
- Tracking online applications
- 1 “click to post” for full position listing
